Three hurt in boat crash

Three persons suffered serious injuries when the 26-foot boat in which they were riding struck a jetty at about 6:30 p.m. Nov. 26 at Cape May Inlet. All three persons were taken to Cape Regional Medical Center for treatment. The cause of the accident is under investigation.

Four charged in robbery

ERMA — Police arrested two adults and two juveniles in connection with a robbery that allegedly took place during a drug transaction. Officers responded to a call at about 4:30 p.m. Nov. 25 in Villas for a subject reporting he was assaulted and robbed at gunpoint. The victim, who suffered injuries to his face, said he went to a home in the first block of East Atlantic Avenue to conduct a drug transaction when a boy struck him in the face. Investigation revealed Louis Garcia, 18, of North Cape May, then pointed a handgun at the victim and told him to empty his pockets. Authorities executed a search warrant at the home on East Atlantic Avenue. During the search, Jonathan Halas, 19, of Cape May, and a male juvenile were taken into custody. A short time later, Garcia and a second male juvenile were located at a separate house, also in the first block of East Atlantic Avenue, where they were taken into custody. The four suspects were charged with robbery, aggravated assault, unlawful possession of a weapon, possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose and conspiracy to commit robbery. The adults were lodged at the Cape May County Jail and both juveniles placed in a juvenile security facility.

Recently during his homily, a pastor said that God would thank us for our good works. At first I thought, "what can we do for God that deserves any thanks?", but then I realized that perhaps God does thank us in His own way.

When we do God's will and help someone, we may not hear a booming thank you from heaven, but I believe that the good feeling we get inside is from God. He is giving us a blessing and saying, "well done." Doing good things for an ulterior motive could be wrong, and God may not reward or thank us for this. Although the recipient of our help may be thankful, God knows what is in our hearts and our true intentions. The Bible tells us that if we expect thanks and praise here on earth, we have already received our reward. Whenever we are led of the spirit to do good, we should be obedient and expect nothing in return and our Father in heaven will thank us.
