Lower Cape May Little League opened its season April 29 at its field behind the Carl T. Mitnick School. Temperatures in the mid-80s made it feel like an afternoon game in July. Driver charged with DWI following three-car crash

COLD SPRING — Police charged a Pennsylvania man with driving while intoxicated after he allegedly caused a three-car accident.

Lower Township police received a report during the evening hours of April 21 of a three-vehicle crash that involved a head-on collision with airbag deployment in the area of Seashore Road and Strawberry Lane.

Upon arrival, officers discovered that a vehicle operated by Joseph R. Bonner, 26, of Doylestown, Pa., had left the northbound lane, crossed the centerline and headed directly into oncoming traffic in the southbound lane. Bonner was operating a gray sedan that struck the rear passenger side of a white Honda SUV that attempted to swerve out of its way. Bonner's vehicle then struck a small black Chevrolet SUV head on that was directly behind the white Honda.

A female driver of the SUV was transported to Cape Regional Medical Center for treatment of multiple injuries and underwent surgery the following morning. According to family members, she suffered two broken wrists, police said.

Bonner was transported to Cape Regional Medical Center for treatment of a head injury. Lower Township Rescue, Medic-5, West Cape May and Erma fire departments responded to the scene and assisted.

Bonner was later released from Cape Regional Medical Center and transported to Lower Township police headquarters, where he was further processed and released in accordance with John's Law. Bonner was issued motor vehicle summonses for driving while intoxicated, reckless driving and failure to maintain a lane. According to police, he may also be facing criminal charges. This incident is under investigation by Patrolmen Matthew Gamble and William Kocis.
