

Our Nurses Are The Best!

"Our patients at Shore Cancer Center are just wonderful. I feel very fortunate to be involved in their care, and I treat each person as if they are a member of my own family. I'm there to help them navigate through the procedures and treatments they may need, but I'm also there to listen to them. They have just received some shocking and often devastating news, and I do everything I can to help them." — Eileen Stephens, RNC-OB, OCN, Shore Cancer Center

Thank You for your commitment to professional nursing at Shore, and, most importantly, for providing excellent care to our patients and families!

ShoreMedicalCenter.org

Waypoints

REAL ESTATE

LOCAL EVENTS

Wednesday, November 7, 2018

SEA & DO

Christmas parade fundraisers set

WEST CAPE MAY — Three fundraisers have been scheduled to benefit the 53rd annual West Cape May Community Christmas Parade, which is scheduled for 5 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 1.

The first event, a spaghetti dinner at FiNS Bar & Grille, is scheduled for 4 to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 7, at the restaurant, 142 Decatur St. in Cape May.

The menu will include a classic Caesar salad and spaghetti marinara with meatballs, fresh basil and a dinner roll. Tickets are $15 and available online at westcapemay.us. A limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

The next event, Chef Shriver's Sunday Dinner, is scheduled for 4 to 7 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 18, at West Cape May Fire Hall. Join local celebrity chef Chris Shriver as he serves fabulous fare. Cost and other details to follow.

Lastly, Barry's Grand Ole Opry will follow the Sunday Dinner at 7:15 p.m. at West Cape May Borough Hall, 732 Broadway. Tickets are $15 if purchased in advance at westcapemay.us or $20 at the door.

Databases lecture Nov. 7 at library

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — The Cape May County Library invites the public to "Business and Industry Databases," presented by Kara Brehm, at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Nov. 7, at the Cape May Court House branch, 30 W. Mechanic St.

From in-library faxing to a host of databases, these library services are designed to help businesses grow and flourish. The program will outline the services and focus on the databases available through the Cape May County Library system.

Class size is limited, therefore registration and a valid library card are needed to attend. For additional information, call (609) 463-6386 or visit cmclibrary.org.

Rummage sale set for Nov. 9-10

CAPE MAY — The Episcopal Church Women of the Church of the Advent will hold a rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Nov. 9-10 in the Parish Hall at 612 Franklin St. in Cape May.

The sale will include men's, women's and children's clothing and accessories, along with household items, linens and books. Proceeds from the sale will benefit outreach projects.

For more information, call (609) 884-3065.

Veterans Day Parade Nov. 10

VILLAS — Lower Township will honor military veterans during the community's Veterans Day Parade at 11 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 10.

The parade will step off at the Villas Fire Department and travel south on Bayshore Road to end at Township Hall. The event will feature high school marching bands, fire departments, community groups and local veterans.

Deputy Mayor Frank Sippel said the parade will give the community an opportunity to show their support and appreciation to veterans.

Local veterans and veteran organizations interested in participating in the parade can find more information by calling Eileen Kreis at (609) 886-2005, ext. 132, or emailing ekreis@townshipoflower.org.

Veterans Day ceremony Nov. 11

ERMA — The annual Cape May County Veterans Day ceremony is scheduled for 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 11, at the Naval Air Station Wildwood Aviation Museum at the Cape May County Airport in the Erma section of Lower Township.

Doors will be opening at 1 p.m. and the event will end at 4 p.m.

In addition to the ceremony, there will be vendors providing information on veterans services, such as the Philadelphia VA Regional Office,

See Sea & Do page B2

HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE The two-story 2,090-square-foot single at 1142 Washington St. was built around 1880 and features a comfortable living room, upgraded kitchen, two and a half bathrooms and a private back yard.

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE Above, the front door opens to the living room with built-in bookshelves and a gas fireplace. Below, the large, sunny kitchen, which has upgraded cabinets and countertops, with seating for three at the bar.

Historic house sports modern amenities on Washington St.

CAPE MAY — A classic piece of Cape May history has come on the market, offering a porch-front view of Washington Street and plenty of modern comforts throughout the beautifully updated and maintained property.

The 2,090-square-foot Ann Ware House at 1142 Washington St. was built around 1880. The two-story single has a large lot with plenty of trees and a covered front porch. There are no steps from the porch to the sidewalk — you reach it from inside the house — with the front door set off to the side.

In the very walkable historic district, the house is close to the popular Emlen Physick Estate, renovated and preserved by the Mid-Atlantic City for the Arts and Humanities. A short white-picket fence lines the front, where there's a narrow front yard.

There is plenty of parking in a gravel drive to the side of the house, which

See Historic house, page B2

Address: 1142 Washington St., Cape May
Key features: Three bedrooms, 2.5 bathrooms, private backyard
Approximate living space: 2,100 square feet
Other features: Historic exterior, upgraded interior, spacious lot with parking
Agent: Todd H. deSatnick of deSatnick Real Estate, (609) 884-1300, tdesatnick@desatnickrealestate.com
Price: $899,900

142 Washington Street • Cape May, NJ HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Brought to you by Todd deSatnick

1001 Lafayette Street, Cape May • O: 609-884-1300 • F: 609-884-1304 • C: 609-780-2033 • www.deSatnickRealEstate.com