Lower to hold police summer camp

VILLAS — The Lower Township Healthy Youth Coalition will hold a youth community camp in July in cooperation with Cape Assist and Lower Township police.

Healthy Youth Coalition Coordinator Steve Selby said a goal of the camp is building a relationship between students and police. He said the camp would be held July 25-27.

"It is a pilot program for what we plan to grow into a weeklong police camp for next year," Selby said.

"The camp will entail everything from police encounters to SWAT demos to K-9 demos," Selby said.

Deputy Mayor Frank Sippel will provide a military aspect, bringing in recruiters to present options to the young boys and girls, he said. Team building, goal setting and communication will be part of the camp, Selby said.

"There will be a physical training element every day, there will be obstacle courses," he said. "The third day will incorporate us transporting these young men and women to the Cape May County Police Academy for police simulator training."

Selby said 25 sixth-, seventh- and eighth-graders will attend on a scholarship basis, with a larger group next year.

Sippel said Middle Township and Wildwood hold similar camps and next year, Lower Township may be able to hold its camp at the same time and rotate activities among the three towns. A final day of competition could be held between bordering towns using what students have learned in the camp, Selby said. He said a goal was to place the students in an "environment that they might not have ever been in before."

CAPE MAY — City Council honored Cape May Police Detective Sgt. Shawn R. Austin on Monday night on the occasion of his retirement.

Mayor Chuck Lear said Austin began with the Cape May Police Department as a temporary dispatcher in 1990, was appointed a special law enforcement officer in 1993 and appointed as a full-time officer in 1994. In addition, he served two stints with the detective division, was the Drug Abuse Resistance Education (DARE) officer for Cape May and West Cape elementary schools and was promoted to the rank of sergeant in 2006.

Police Chief Anthony Marino said he served with Austin throughout his career. He presented Austin with a plaque that noted his dedication to the police department for 25 years.

"It's been truly an honor and a privilege to serve the citizens of Cape May, West Cape May and Cape May Point, and the visitors every year for my 25 years," Austin said. "It went pretty quick after the 20th year."

Austin received a standing ovation from council and the audience.

Patrolman Michael B. LeSage was sworn in as a new officer. Marino said LeSage served as a Class II officer in Cape May from 2012 to 2015. He was then hired by the Hi-Nella police department. Marino said LeSage is fully trained and will be on patrol immediately. LeSage said he was excited to again serve in Cape May.
