HOUSE OF THE WEEK

Special to the Cape May Star and Wave

Above, 704 W. Lake Dr. in Cape May Point offers the next owner tranquility and comfort in a verdant, natural community. Below, the view of Lake Lily from 704 W. Lake and the back yard with stone patio.

Cape May Point cottage has view and more

CAPE MAY POINT - One of the things about searching for a home in the Cape May area is there is almost no such thing as a bad location. Just about every home in the Cape Island area is close to what everyone wants: the beaches, the dining, the entertainment and shopping.

The House of the Week being featured here, listed with Coldwell Banker Sol Needles Real Estate, has something even more, making it a great location for the next homeowner. This Cape May Point cottage at 704 W. Lake Dr., has everything most people want in a shore home. Nestled in the small residential community of Cape May Point, this home is away from the hustle and bustle of the tourist season, yet close enough to the fun of seasonal events. Cape May Point is a good place for biking, walking, and enjoying the Point's own beaches. Birders can enjoy being located in a stop over point for migratory birds and butterflies, including the Cape May Point State Park.

This home, however, offers the added element of the serenity of Lake Lily. Located on W. Lake Drive, this home has an unobstructed view of Lake Lily, which is a stopping off point for many duck-like birds, and for the mute swans that call the lake home.

A two-bedroom, single story home also features adequate outdoor area for enjoying nature right at home. It's a perfect getaway or retirement home, flush in the tranquil community of Cape May Point.

The home also has seasonal rental potential.

Recently restored, 704 W. Lake Dr. features major mechanical upgrades and top of the line finishes. Hardwood flooring gives this home a classic look people have come to expect in Cape May area homes, while
