VILLAS — The winter might seem colder than usual but there are still good days ahead for paving according to the Long Term Utilities Authority LTCUA.

Marc DeBlasio, PE, PP, engineering services, had planned to close this time of year reported that the work might be done by Friday and by the end of next week there will be a couple of lanes that will be traveled.

DeBlasio also put in a good word for the Coast Guard saying, “They are the best neighbors you could have.”
