Cape May — The City of Cape May called a press conference Monday to announce its 2014 schedule of concerts and performances for Convention Hall, beginning for the third consecutive year with the Philly Pops.

Mayor Ed Mahaney thanked his supporters. “I think we need to come together and support our local candidates as much as we possibly can,” Mahaney said.

Mr. Money and Gabor are running for their second terms on the county Freeholder board. Mr. Money and Gabor are running for their third term as divestiture. However, it was a learning experience for Money and Gabor. His viewpoint is that if you do not get involved, you lose your voice.

The Cape May County Republican Organization hosted its annual convention March 19 at Arundel Community Center, where municipal committee members, along with candidates, spoke of their platforms and campaigns.
