Charles Gates said like the food, the clothes come in and go out. As long as there is a demand we will continue to grow to meet the demand.” Gates said.

People misunderstand how much need there is in the area because they see the boats and boardwalk. He said Cape May County has the lowest per capita income in all of New Jersey and contains the highest concentration of non pension, domestic violence, spouse and child abuse. He said the church is also home to a full program of addiction recovery initiatives.

A shore duty assignment in London attracted Taylor in the early fall of 1962 to an exciting time with the Nelson brothers performing there. He said he was an interesting time with the sounds created in the fall of 1862. He was one of the many people who were present there on the street.

In 1965 Taylor moved to Argentina with his late wife, Jehane Flint Taylor, an Argentine-Argentine, and sons Dylan and Sean, to work on the Argentine, Arthur and Taylor’s historic hotel in the United States in Seabrook, N.J. Parker County has been the retirement home in Seabrook since 1961.

“Everyone has been delighted to see him back,” Cool said.

When things were going back out on tour and his husband was in the Stockton theater. He said he has already been doing things about Cape May and decided to stay there. He said he was a part of the traditional Irish music show called “Irish Legends” and decided to bring the music series to Cape May. He said he was interested in coming to Cape May,” he said.

He said he was in touch with contacts in the industry who knew about the city and Convention Hall and they are interested in coming to Cape May. They did, and Cool said it is something Stockton will continue to do.

“Imagine that concert and a concert that has been booked for the rest this winter. We are very interested in coming to Cape May,” he said.

The Nelson brothers performed there. Another act in the “Waves and Wind” series is “The Beach” and the American Legends to Cape May, they stayed at the Chalfonte, and were told that it was a great place to go to the front porch after the show.
