The alarm came in around 3:40 p.m., Nov. 7, from neighbors who said the house had exploded. Reports by the Delaware County Fire Department indicated the fire was quickly put out before being extinguished by the smoke. Beck said he believed no one was hurt.

There was a significant response from the people of this area, including an off-duty police officer,” Beck said.

As a former teacher, Beck said he had taught in the Union Beach district for 33 years and had worked in the McCarty home. "There was a significant response from the people of the scene, including an off-duty police officer," he said. "We have been working together to get the job done." Van Drew said some of the issues must be dealt with now. "It is in the best interest of the state to bring the local government in and make sure our voters are taken care of.

"It is a flawed system, no matter how you look at it. It is the only system we have and we need to do things through it. It is the only system we have and we need to do things through it.

We need to get our hands on the record keeping and be on top of the votes at the polls in West Cape May. I don’t understand what the people who voted in the elections for the Board of Commissioners are thinking. Ecker. "People think they can’t impact your community," he said.
