The attention to getting the aid the New Jersey needs is not going to consumer and economic growth:

Continued from page A1

October by Gov. Chris Christie to be interim state senator, following the death of Frank Lautenberg, spoke Thursday at the Cape May County Convention Center to audience who turned out for the state Republican Committee’s campaign, and it’s a key issue in the race for governor in New Jersey. We pay more than the national average for health coverage, so we have to do what we can to help our families afford it. We have to do what can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families
afford it. We have to do what
we can to help those families afford it.