Celtic Nights at Stockton PAC

March 6

GALLOWAY TOWNSHIP — Celtic Nights celebrates "Rhythms of Ireland," featuring an exhibition of Irish dance that highlights the energy of the Irish people throughout time, on March 6 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Hanover Community Arts Center, 100 Community Drive. The event is sponsored by the Friends of the Hanover Library and proceeds will benefit the library. Refreshments will be served. For information, call the library at 609-652-9600. Monday-Friday 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Traditional Jazz

March 6

CAPE MAY — The Cape May Traditional Jazz Society presents "Traditional Jazz Friday" with the Bob Rawlins Quartet, 8 to 10 p.m. at The Court House, 708 Washington Mall, Cape May. Sign up to tell a story, share a poem or put use over during the bull slam, or just come to listen. The competition is from 6 to 7 p.m. The property is listed at $659,000. For tickets or information, call (609) 884-7525 or www.center.org and download the response form.

Artists Cooperative

Second Sunday

March 10

CAPE MAY — The Cape May Artists Cooperative Gallery is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. through March 10 from 2 to 5 p.m. and members on hand to discuss their works. Light refreshments served.

Shore Slam on 'Luck' March 13

CAPE MAY — The Center for Community Arts holds its Winter Slam on March 13 from 2 to 3 p.m. at the Center for Community Arts, 104 Bank Street, Cape May. For information, contact Center for Community Arts at 609-884-7525 or ccapemay.org.

VIM Day celebrated March 10

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — "VIM Day" (Volunteers in Medicine) will be celebrated Sunday, March 10, with a brunch and a speakers forum at 2 p.m. at the Sharpe House, 526 Washington Mall. A small number of part-time staff and volunteer physicians, nurses, dentists, and pharmacists from the Stockton Health Care System will be on hand to answer questions. An improving market means property values are going to be rising, and this is the time to make a move on an attractive property.

The location is perfect; you can park and walk everywhere. It's the oldest resort town on east coast. It's the oldest resort town. It definitely has its pros, more than any shore town, he said. When asked what he thought was the best feature, Giancola went back to its charm. "It's the overall feature is when you walk into the house, you feel it was and you walk into the house and you feel it was built to be a home in 50s and 60s. You just walk in and feel comfortable," he said. "It feels like a good home. It's a Cape May home that helps pay for the insurance. It's the dark wood trim and hard wood floors adding to the Victorian charm. "The best overall feature is when you walk into the house, you feel it was and you walk into the house and you feel it was built to be a home in 50s and 60s. You just walk in and feel comfortable," he said. "It feels like a good home."