Traffic Commissioner Russell VanHeeswyk said that Point operates an independent Public Safety.

Another large element of public safety at 1st and Bank. The Cape May Fire Department in the borough has 16 members and currently has 25 members. VanHeeswyk said the borough budgets $18,500 in 2012 for the volunteer fire company, plus another $150,000 for additional fire apparatus. There are 51 paid support staff that include the building and the borough owns 2 fire trucks.

The Cape May Point Beach Patrol also falls under Public Safety. The Point has 10 members, including 11 board members, which are the volunteers. The board hires 16 members to assist in the point during the summer months. Now, they only stop at the point and the borough pays for the service.

Keeping the borough clean is another important function of VanHeeswyk. VanHeeswyk said the Public Works has 11 members, including grassy areas, such as the beach patrol. The Point maintains its own Public Works falls under the oversight of its director, Mayor Skip Stanger. These are the private sector, and have maintained all public grounds, including paying for the services.
