Candiates share their vision for Cape May

Mayor Lear faces challenge from Mullock; Hendricks, Bezaire, DiSanto seek council seat

Hendricks faced Mark DiSanto while Deputy Mayor Patricia er Councilman Zack Mullock, squared off against challeng-

Tube video. available to the public in a You-the ballroom of Congress Hall participated in a forum Sept. 28 from flooding threat, Hall said, adding that higher than the 100-year be placed at an elevation outage to 7,100 customers. The substation failed, causing an only transformer at the subtransformer. Last year, the ment would be added along said more modern equip-improvement over the exist-Tavacchia said. He said At-for a grant of a D2 variance, positive criteria necessary

"use," he said.

island and increase capacity of power delivery to Cape

Yard will be constructed along Venice

A decorative palisades

Engineering

Cornforth said a swale

During a virtual meeting Oct. 1, attorneys for the applicant Frank Corrado the Clemanses allowed the site in the 1840s, is also on the site, he said. Architectural historian Joan Berkey the Bunton family

The candidates were asked if area of the "business." He conceded that the city must also see "progress and committee recommended build-because there would be no room building would become obsolete said, adding that a public safety

Franklin Street School, Mullock

saying that a public safety

building would become obsolete

for expansion.

Franklin Street School, Mullock

saying that a public safety

building would become obsolete

for expansion.

Franklin Street School, Mullock