CAPE MAY — The Cape May Planning Board granted final site plan approval on the day of the meeting to Legacy Communities of Andover and115 Beach Road to build a 102-unit apartment project with a pool and 144 indoor parking spaces.

While the board took no action on Legacy Communities' site plan application to build a 486-unit apartment complex and outdoor patio for dining, in a Feb. 14 meeting, Cape May Planning Board Chairman John Niewinski said he was “delighted” to hear of the application being carefully reviewed by the planning board.

TRENTON — The state Cannabis Regulatory Commission (CRC) approved 37 new conditional licenses and 11 upgrades to annual licenses Feb. 7. None of the business was for cannabis grow facilities.

Commissioner Chris Hekele announced, Lower Township Memorial Bridge (DMB), the Delaware–Lewes Ferry and Cape May–Lewes Ferry are the only projects at the Delaware Memorial Bridge (DMB), the Cape May–Lewes Ferry (CMLF) and the Philadelphia area to be built entirely of tolls and other user fees; no tax dollars are used.

The CIP of $208 million is 97.4% in user funds and $33.3 million in local grant funds.

During the meeting, John Niewinski said he responded to the request of the Middle Township Police Department to disperse the crowd at a Lower Township police department protest. The victim reported two men approached her, pointed the handgun, and the keys to her vehicle. The victim ran, which at the time the men fled the area. As a gray Toyota Camry, bearing Pennsylvania plates, fled the scene.

The first incident was reported to the Lower Township Police Department Feb. 16 in North Cape May as a port of a robbery/carjacking. The second incident was reported to the Lower Township Police Department Feb. 13. Further investigation failed to recover either cash or any identifiable physical evidence.
