City OKs purchase of Allen AME Church
Orders additional testing for underground contamination

By JOHN ALVAREZ
Special to the Star and Wave

VILLAS — Lower Township Council introduced its 2021 proposed budget featuring a 2-cent increase in the local property tax rate.

In his budget message March 17, Township Manager Mike Lafery said the tax levy will be $7,280,000 to $5,780,000, or 40.4 percent.

Lower boroughs that affect the Lower Township’s 2020 tax collection rate was 90.99 percent.

Due to a reduction in collections as a result of the COVID-19 Pandemic. State aid was down to $41,259,000 which allows the township to have a budget of $7,280,000 to $5,780,000. While it is anticipated not to be adequate for the next budget year. The fiscal year budget would be $2.1 million compared to last year’s $2.1 million, an increase of $855,076.

The amount of surplus that has not been used is $650,000.

Lower Township’s 2020 tax collection rate was 90.99 percent.

On Friday, March 12, the Lower Township Council introduced its 2021 proposed budget featuring a 2-cent increase in the local property tax rate.

In his budget message March 17, Township Manager Mike Lafery said the tax levy will be $7,280,000 to $5,780,000, or 40.4 percent.

Lower boroughs that affect the Lower Township’s 2020 tax collection rate was 90.99 percent.

Due to a reduction in collections as a result of the COVID-19 Pandemic.

State aid was down to $41,259,000 which allows the township to have a budget of $7,280,000 to $5,780,000.

While it is anticipated not to be adequate for the next budget year.

The fiscal year budget would be $2.1 million compared to last year’s $2.1 million, an increase of $855,076.

The amount of surplus that has not been used is $650,000.

Lower boroughs that affect the Lower Township’s 2020 tax collection rate was 90.99 percent.

On Friday, March 12, the Lower Township Council introduced its 2021 proposed budget featuring a 2-cent increase in the local property tax rate.