By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN
Cape May Star and Wave

Sheehan, Mullock present alternate plans at town hall

Majority backs one combined safety building

Barnes, Mullock present combined safety building plans at town hall

Cape May’s proposed safety building is back on the table, thanks to the alternate plan presented by Mayor Kevin Mullock and Councilman Mike Sheehan. The two men agreed to work together to present an alternate plan to the public and the City Council for a combined safety building.

The proposed safety building would house the police and fire departments, as well as the public safety advisory and the public safety committee.