Lorenzo Cape May, Ohio Community Center including the historical home of Harriet Tubman in Cape May and there was a long line of emails that Harriet Tubman's Underground Railroad history and its legacy.

Tubman was a prominent abolitionist who was born into slavery in 1820 and escaped to freedom in 1849. She became a conductor on the Underground Railroad, helping many slaves escape to freedom in the Northern states and Canada. Tubman went back into slavery to recruit and lead more enslaved people to freedom during the American Civil War. She was considered a hero and a symbol of courage.

In 1949, Cape May was declared a National Historic Landmark by the federal government. The Tubman Museum is located in Cape May and features exhibits and programming related to Tubman and her work in the Underground Railroad.

The Cape May Museum was founded in 1973 and has a mission to transform from one of the top 10 New Jersey destinations to one of the top 100 destinations in the United States. The museum is dedicated to the preservation and interpretation of local history and culture.

Cape May is also known for its beautiful beaches, historic homes, and unique architecture. It is a popular destination for visitors who come to enjoy the beauty of the Atlantic Ocean and the charm of the town.

In addition to the Cape May Museum, there are many other attractions in Cape May, including the Cape May Lighthouse, the Cape May Battery, and the Cape May Historical Development. The town is also home to a number of restaurants, shops, and art galleries.

Overall, Cape May is a charming and historic town that offers a unique blend of natural beauty and cultural heritage. It is a must-visit destination for anyone who appreciates the history and beauty of the Delaware Bay region.