ERMA — Joseph Salvato, 43, founder and volunteer chairman of Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood has been awarded the New Jersey Historical Commission’s (NJHC) highest honor — the Distinguished Service Award, for his outstanding leadership and lifetime achievement in the field of New Jersey history. The award was presented Nov. 12 during the NJHC History Forum at Monmouth University Sal- lom Hall and noted that he has been actively involved in the field of New Jersey history since founding Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood historic sites in 1995. The NJHC Distinguished Service Award is the highest honor awarded by the NJHC and is presented to an individual who has made a lifetime commitment to the advancement of history and preservation of the state’s history and heritage. The award recognizes individuals who have devoted their time and talent to the preservation of New Jersey’s history, heritage and culture and their contributions have benefitted the state’s citizens and its historical and cultural heritage.

County announces assistance programs

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — New assistance programs are available in Cape May County for rent- ers, homeowners and small business owners who were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

About $1.5 million in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPC) grants is still available to renters, homeowners and small businesses who are still recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2021 award was for the low- and moderate-income communities between Coast Guard stations.

The 2021 award was presented Nov. 12 during the NJHC History Forum at Monmouth University Sal- lom Hall and noted that he has been actively involved in the field of New Jersey history since founding Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood historic sites in 1995. The NJHC Distinguished Service Award is the highest honor awarded by the NJHC and is presented to an individual who has made a lifetime commitment to the advancement of history and preservation of the state’s history and heritage. The award recognizes individuals who have devoted their time and talent to the preservation of New Jersey’s history, heritage and culture and their contributions have benefitted the state’s citizens and its historical and cultural heritage.

County announces assistance programs

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — New assistance programs are available in Cape May County for rent- ers, homeowners and small business owners who were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

About $1.5 million in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPC) grants is still available to renters, homeowners and small businesses who are still recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2021 award was for the low- and moderate-income communities between Coast Guard stations.

The 2021 award was presented Nov. 12 during the NJHC History Forum at Monmouth University Sal- lom Hall and noted that he has been actively involved in the field of New Jersey history since founding Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood historic sites in 1995. The NJHC Distinguished Service Award is the highest honor awarded by the NJHC and is presented to an individual who has made a lifetime commitment to the advancement of history and preservation of the state’s history and heritage. The award recognizes individuals who have devoted their time and talent to the preservation of New Jersey’s history, heritage and culture and their contributions have benefitted the state’s citizens and its historical and cultural heritage.

County announces assistance programs

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — New assistance programs are available in Cape May County for rent- ers, homeowners and small business owners who were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

About $1.5 million in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPC) grants is still available to renters, homeowners and small businesses who are still recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2021 award was for the low- and moderate-income communities between Coast Guard stations.

The 2021 award was presented Nov. 12 during the NJHC History Forum at Monmouth University Sal- lom Hall and noted that he has been actively involved in the field of New Jersey history since founding Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood historic sites in 1995. The NJHC Distinguished Service Award is the highest honor awarded by the NJHC and is presented to an individual who has made a lifetime commitment to the advancement of history and preservation of the state’s history and heritage. The award recognizes individuals who have devoted their time and talent to the preservation of New Jersey’s history, heritage and culture and their contributions have benefitted the state’s citizens and its historical and cultural heritage.

County announces assistance programs

CAPE MAY COURT HOUSE — New assistance programs are available in Cape May County for rent- ers, homeowners and small business owners who were affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

About $1.5 million in Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation (FPC) grants is still available to renters, homeowners and small businesses who are still recovering from the COVID-19 pandemic. The 2021 award was for the low- and moderate-income communities between Coast Guard stations.

The 2021 award was presented Nov. 12 during the NJHC History Forum at Monmouth University Sal- lom Hall and noted that he has been actively involved in the field of New Jersey history since founding Historic Cold Spring Village and Naval Air Station Wildwood historic sites in 1995. The NJHC Distinguished Service Award is the highest honor awarded by the NJHC and is presented to an individual who has made a lifetime commitment to the advancement of history and preservation of the state’s history and heritage. The award recognizes individuals who have devoted their time and talent to the preservation of New Jersey’s history, heritage and culture and their contributions have benefitted the state’s citizens and its historical and cultural heritage.