Chris Bezaire suggested a public hearing and vote of the council to move the meeting to April 20. He said with no increase in the tax rate, he did not see an increase in the amount of revenue to allow the police force to grow.

Borough Commissioner Ed Grant said traffic calming measures to slow down vehicles on the borough’s streets using items such as speed bumps and rumble strips would not be in order.

Deputy Mayor Anita vanHeeswyk said she continues to wear masks. She said the city has too little public works equipment. She said the city-owned building next to Convention Hall is filled with records and could be put to better use.

The city issued a request for proposals to construct a steel building at the public works yard. Mullock said the city would draft an ordinance.

Deputy Mayor Stacy Harris said council members have any questions about the ordinance. She said it is the call of the council to move the meeting.

Mayor Zack Voll said it was the call of council to move the meeting to Convention Hall. He said with no increase in the tax rate, he did not see an increase in the amount of revenue to allow the police force to grow. He said that if the council wishes to continue to wear masks at meetings, it should vote to wear masks at meetings.
