West Cape seeks ruling

Continued from Page A1

McDevitt said she was disturbed and deeply disappointed by the legal action. She said she would probably pursue litigation if she understood Corrado’s point of view.

“I assume they have a point, and it doesn’t advance the issue any further. It has us stuck where we have for information in any case,” she said.

President Jerry Allosi said the letter stating the petition was “totally misleading” gives the impression the petitioners outraged to their fellow neighbors and residents. He said he was very disappointed at the action.

“All we want is to make the petition. We are making the petition to make a determination as to whether the petitioners are the representatives of the petition were right or wrong. So in reality, the petition was wholly incorrect and not sufficient that the petitioners are the interested parties who are interested in the lawsuit, and in this case, the interested parties in the lawsuit were the five petitioners.

“Nowhere in their submission is there anything that would follow up on the petition, and it simply just goes on and on. We have no information if they wanted to. We have no information if they wanted to.

“The complaint filed in Superior Court states, “Nowhere in their submission do the petitioners make clear that a vote in favor of their proposed amendment would preclude all retail cannabis sales in the borough and would constitute a silent repeal of that portion of the borough’s ordinance.”

McDevitt said she would probably pursue litigation if she understood Corrado’s point of view. She said she would probably pursue litigation if she understood Corrado’s point of view.

“All we want is to make the petition. We are making the petition to make a determination as to whether the petitioners are the representatives of the petition were right or wrong. So in reality, the petition was wholly incorrect and not sufficient that the petitioners are the interested parties who are interested in the lawsuit, and in this case, the interested parties in the lawsuit were the five petitioners.

“Nowhere in their submission is there anything that would follow up on the petition, and it simply just goes on and on. We have no information if they wanted to. We have no information if they wanted to.

“The complaint filed in Superior Court states, “Nowhere in their submission do the petitioners make clear that a vote in favor of their proposed amendment would preclude all retail cannabis sales in the borough and would constitute a silent repeal of that portion of the borough’s ordinance.”

By JACK FICHTER

CAPE MAY — The Washington Street Mall Business Improvement District has presented its $7,400 subsidized budget to City Council last week.

Walsh said the city’s May form would follow within 20 days of the decision. A petition cannot be filed for a vote referendums. The petitioners missed that deadline, according to Corrado.

The complaint filed in Superior Court states, “Nowhere in their submission do the petitioners make clear that a vote in favor of their proposed amendment would preclude all retail cannabis sales in the borough and would constitute a silent repeal of that portion of the borough’s ordinance.”

“All we want is to make the petition. We are making the petition to make a determination as to whether the petitioners are the representatives of the petition were right or wrong. So in reality, the petition was wholly incorrect and not sufficient that the petitioners are the interested parties who are interested in the lawsuit, and in this case, the interested parties in the lawsuit were the five petitioners.

“Nowhere in their submission is there anything that would follow up on the petition, and it simply just goes on and on. We have no information if they wanted to. We have no information if they wanted to.

“The complaint filed in Superior Court states, “Nowhere in their submission do the petitioners make clear that a vote in favor of their proposed amendment would preclude all retail cannabis sales in the borough and would constitute a silent repeal of that portion of the borough’s ordinance.”

Projects

Continued from Page A1

The committee discussed plans for a second annual open house at West Cape headquarters in July.

Last year’s open house included a rescue demonstration. The committee postponed the city’s fire department open house for various reasons.

Cape May Fire Department

Holden said the U.S. Lifesaving Association (USLA) offers coloring books, stickers and bookmarks for free on its website. He said the patrol’s goal is to run a program for public education.

Linda Chao, MD

Hand and Wrist Surgeon

Penn Ortho

Cape Regional Medical Centers

215 N. Main Street

Cape May Court House, NJ

Hope Medical Centers

210 S. Shore Road, Suite 101

Marmora, NJ

LINDA CHAO, MD

Cape May BID presents proposed budget

Call or visit your local financial advisor today.

Allison K Kruse

Millville, NJ 08332

207 Bogden Blvd Suite J

Abingdon, MD 21009

540-922-0214

Published Weekly (52 times a year)

By mail for a year, $75; for two years, $110; for six months, $40.

Website address changes at The Ocean City Sentinel, P.O. Box 239, Ocean City, N.J. 08226

Monthly subscription rate is $11.80 for 1 year; $23.60 for 2 years.

Annual subscription rate is $67.80 for 1 year; $135.60 for 2 years.

Registered and published as a news magazine.

112-19661

Compilation published by Ocean City Sentinel

Published Weekly (52 times a year)

By mail for a year, $75; for two years, $110; for six months, $40.

Website address changes at The Ocean City Sentinel, P.O. Box 239, Ocean City, N.J. 08226

Monthly subscription rate is $11.80 for 1 year; $23.60 for 2 years.

Annual subscription rate is $67.80 for 1 year; $135.60 for 2 years.

Registered and published as a news magazine.