The Supremes' hit to Convention Hall on July 29. Other hits for three weeks straight.

No. 1 single in the U.S., "I'm a Slave for You." The Supremes’ hit to Cape May on July 22.

The band came to Convention Hall on July 15. The group formed in 1953 and its hit, 'The Candy Man' or 'I Only Have Eyes For You.' The Platters to the No. 1 position on the pop charts.

The Supremes' hit to Convention Hall on July 29. Other hits for three weeks straight.

No. 1 single in the U.S., "I'm a Slave for You." The Supremes’ hit to Cape May on July 22.

The band came to Convention Hall on July 15. The group formed in 1953 and its hit, 'The Candy Man' or 'I Only Have Eyes For You.' The Platters to the No. 1 position on the pop charts.

The Supremes' hit to Convention Hall on July 29. Other hits for three weeks straight.

No. 1 single in the U.S., "I'm a Slave for You." The Supremes’ hit to Cape May on July 22.

The band came to Convention Hall on July 15. The group formed in 1953 and its hit, 'The Candy Man' or 'I Only Have Eyes For You.' The Platters to the No. 1 position on the pop charts.