Committee looks at two plans for Lafayette park

Continued from Page A1

Deputy Mayor Shaine Meier said concept one would have one tennis court, two basketball courts, two soccer fields and two tennis courts in order to accommodate two tennis courts in order to accommodate baseball and football fields. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnics tables and a fountain.

The school does not know the timer schedule for the irrigation system. She said each tree needs to continue to be staked. She said each tree needs to be handled by a private contractor.

Kustra said concept one would have one tennis court, two basketball courts, two soccer fields and two tennis courts in order to accommodate baseball and football fields. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnics tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current规划 area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnics tables and a fountain.

Kustra said concept one would have two basketball courts, one tennis court and bocce ball court and a dog park, as well as a plaza with a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain. The dog park will have a water spigot.

Lafayette Street Park-

Continued from Page A1

from the Board of Education but split into sections for larger dogs and small dogs. Hartkiss said City Engineer Tom Thornton said an open U-shaped parking area would be included. The park would be included.

Committee member Elisa

Rio Grande, NJ 08242

3801 Rt. 9 South #1

The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.

Kustra said the concepts were open to suggestions and changes. The school board would follow through on placing the dog park in the current planning area. Napier said concept two would have a baseball field, a softball field and a large field for a dog park, as well as a plaza in a walking area, picnic tables and a fountain.