Cape May easy way to get around

Cape May — For those who live in Cape May, driving around in a car during the middle of the summer season can be aummer.

Most days have visitors to the Cape. In the weeks around Memorial Day and throughout the month of July, and months of August, the number of visitors increases. This influx of visitors, along with the hard and soft growth of Cape May, makes it difficult for those who drive to find parking.

So what is one to do to get around this traffic and park without a hassle?

The jitneys are a convenient and fast way to get around Cape May. They are air conditioned and fast. In fact, some consider their “main advantage” to be their speed.

During the A July month, the jitneys run daily from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

According to Dennis Gitsas, who is one of the drivers, he said that there are 13 loops that follow the jitney routes.

The southbound loop is from Convention Hall and the Washington Street. The northbound loop is from the Welcome Center on Convention Hall.

There is no charge for a ride on the jitneys. All jitneys leave from the Convention Hall and the Washington Street.

The jitneys are a great way to get around Cape May.
