North Cape May residents face additional drug charges

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

North Cape May residents face additional drug charges as a result of a joint operation by the Cape May County Prosecutor’s Office and the United States Department of Homeland Security.

According to a press release, the operation involved the arrest of 12 individuals, including five residents of North Cape May, on charges related to the distribution of heroin and cocaine.

Two residents of North Cape May were charged with possession of heroin and cocaine, while another was charged with possession of cocaine.

The operation was conducted over a period of two days, during which agents seized a large amount of drugs, including heroin and cocaine.

The residents were arrested and transported to the Atlantic County Jail, where they will remain pending their initial appearance.

The Cape May County Prosecutor’s Office and the United States Department of Homeland Security are thanking the public for their support and encourage residents to report any suspicious activity.

The joint operation is part of an ongoing effort to combat drug trafficking and protect the community.

Residents are encouraged to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activity to the authorities.

Photo by Tim Hawk for NJ.com