FREE SERVICES
Treatment for current tobacco users ages 18+
Assistance for quitting cigarettes, vapes and chewing tobacco
Tobacco Treatment Specialists
On one sessions with a Tobacco Specialist available
Six-week group counseling sessions
Free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) available

WEST CAPE MAY — Maud Abrams School hosted its annual spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Pleasantville, NJ 08232
P. 609.804.QUIT quitcenter@atlprevo.org

Castellucci

Continued from Page A1

COLD SPRING — Community service is a lesson learned early in the lives of the K-Kids of the Maud Abrams School who helped stage a spaghetti dinner Saturday night to raise funds for the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 12, the Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At a Feb. 26 Lower Township Elementary School "Meet the Teacher Night," the school board was asked to adopt new regulations to provide for grievances and due process.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

On Feb. 13, Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

By JOHN ALVAREZ
Specialist in the Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — Maud Abrams School hosted its annual spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Pleasantville, NJ 08232, as was the case last year, for $400.00.

During a meeting and public hearing Feb. 27, community members asked the borough commissioners to consider amending the borough’s liquor ordinance to allow for a restaurant bar and business is to be operated in West Cape May and will fully comply with all regulations and Wright said aribbon cutting ceremony would take place March 8.

Monzo said Detective Sgt. Joseph Dietterich was kind enough to pick up that bill for $200 and some dollars.”

Morris said the spaghetti dinner was a major project at the school district Business office.

Morris said K-Kids now have helped beautify local gardens with plants, collected food for the area’s needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

Morris thanked the commissioners for the patience their organization prop-

COLD SPRING — Community service is a lesson learned early in the lives of the K-Kids of the Maud Abrams School who helped stage a spaghetti dinner Saturday night to raise funds for the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 12, the Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At a Feb. 26 Lower Township Elementary School "Meet the Teacher Night," the school board was asked to adopt new regulations to provide for grievances and due process.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

On Feb. 13, Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

By JOHN ALVAREZ
Specialist in the Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — Maud Abrams School hosted its annual spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Pleasantville, NJ 08232, as was the case last year, for $400.00.

During a meeting and public hearing Feb. 27, community members asked the borough commissioners to consider amending the borough’s liquor ordinance to allow for a restaurant bar and business is to be operated in West Cape May and will fully comply with all regulations and Wright said aribbon cutting ceremony would take place March 8.

Monzo said Detective Sgt. Joseph Dietterich was kind enough to pick up that bill for $200 and some dollars.”

Morris said the spaghetti dinner was a major project at the school district Business office.

Morris said K-Kids now have helped beautify local gardens with plants, collected food for the area’s needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

Morris thanked the commissioners for the patience their organization prop-

COLD SPRING — Community service is a lesson learned early in the lives of the K-Kids of the Maud Abrams School who helped stage a spaghetti dinner Saturday night to raise funds for the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 12, the Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At a Feb. 26 Lower Township Elementary School "Meet the Teacher Night," the school board was asked to adopt new regulations to provide for grievances and due process.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

On Feb. 13, Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

By JOHN ALVAREZ
Specialist in the Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — Maud Abrams School hosted its annual spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Pleasantville, NJ 08232, as was the case last year, for $400.00.

During a meeting and public hearing Feb. 27, community members asked the borough commissioners to consider amending the borough’s liquor ordinance to allow for a restaurant bar and business is to be operated in West Cape May and will fully comply with all regulations and Wright said aribbon cutting ceremony would take place March 8.

Monzo said Detective Sgt. Joseph Dietterich was kind enough to pick up that bill for $200 and some dollars.”

Morris said the spaghetti dinner was a major project at the school district Business office.

Morris said K-Kids now have helped beautify local gardens with plants, collected food for the area’s needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

Morris thanked the commissioners for the patience their organization prop-

COLD SPRING — Community service is a lesson learned early in the lives of the K-Kids of the Maud Abrams School who helped stage a spaghetti dinner Saturday night to raise funds for the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 12, the Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At a Feb. 26 Lower Township Elementary School "Meet the Teacher Night," the school board was asked to adopt new regulations to provide for grievances and due process.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

On Feb. 13, Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

By JOHN ALVAREZ
Specialist in the Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — Maud Abrams School hosted its annual spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Pleasantville, NJ 08232, as was the case last year, for $400.00.

During a meeting and public hearing Feb. 27, community members asked the borough commissioners to consider amending the borough’s liquor ordinance to allow for a restaurant bar and business is to be operated in West Cape May and will fully comply with all regulations and Wright said aribbon cutting ceremony would take place March 8.

Monzo said Detective Sgt. Joseph Dietterich was kind enough to pick up that bill for $200 and some dollars.”

Morris said the spaghetti dinner was a major project at the school district Business office.

Morris said K-Kids now have helped beautify local gardens with plants, collected food for the area’s needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

Morris thanked the commissioners for the patience their organization prop-

COLD SPRING — Community service is a lesson learned early in the lives of the K-Kids of the Maud Abrams School who helped stage a spaghetti dinner Saturday night to raise funds for the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 12, the Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. At a Feb. 26 Lower Township Elementary School "Meet the Teacher Night," the school board was asked to adopt new regulations to provide for grievances and due process.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.

On Feb. 13, Maud Abrams School K-Kids held a spaghetti dinner sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

On Feb. 13, the Tobacco Treatment Specialist, Christine Zellers, MPP, TTS, made an appearance at the Atlantic Medical Group Roanoke location to provide free nicotine replacement therapy (NRT) services for the area's needy, washed cars and held pet store drives to raise money for the county animal shelter.