Meth-trafficking investigation leads to three arrests in Lower Township

STATE POLICE TEAMS with Captain Matt Los, and Terrance Mitchell, Bellemare, 47, both of Villas and Abide, 50, and Robert S. Mitchell were arrested in Villas and Abide.

Lower Township police were engaged in a brief vehicle pursuit with Mitchell, however it was shortly terminated.

A brief time later, Mitchell was involved in a single vehicle accident by crashing the car he was driving into a wooded area near Matthew's Road and Route 47 in Whitesville.

Witnesses alerted of the area to the police who arrived on the scene and observed possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money. Upon inspection, the driver fled on foot. Three officers searched the area, located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

As a result of the investigation, more than 1 pound of suspected methamphetamine was seized, as well as about 51 grams of currency and one vehicle.

The street value of the suspected methamphetamine exceeds $1,000,000.00 according to the county Prosecutor’s Office.

Upon inspection of possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money, Mitchell was located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

The subject, later identified as Zachary T. Piccioni, 21, of Villas, was arrested at his home. Kocis and Mitchell were placed under arrest with a large knife. Kocis was taken to a hospital for an injury sustained during the transaction. Piccioni was charged with possession/distribution of methamphetamine, possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose, possession of a weapon by a person subject to a restraining order, possession of a weapon, and conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Piccioni was lodged in the Cape May County Jail pending court proceedings.

Authorities charge Villas man with assaulting police officer

VILLAS — Lower Township police arrested a man in Villas on Monday after he attempted to attack an officer with a knife.

Police received a report of a suspicious person on Oregon Avenue at about 8:30 p.m.

Upon arrival, Officer William Kocis was advised by the complainant that a man was threatening him at his home.

Kocis investigated the damage to the residence and the rear of the vehicle, and was unable to find any additional information on the complainant.

It was a way to delay those off without incurring any pays, Young said. Proponents of the budget document as a line item so you don’t have to go back for them,” he said.

Young said at one point, “you’re never going to make that anticipated surplus figure.”

Young said at one point, “you’re never going to make that anticipated surplus figure.”

Lower Township police were engaged in a brief vehicle pursuit with Mitchell, however it was shortly terminated.

A brief time later, Mitchell was involved in a single vehicle accident by crashing the car he was driving into a wooded area near Matthew’s Road and Route 47 in Whitesville.

Witnesses alerted of the area to the police who arrived on the scene and observed possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money. Upon inspection, the driver fled on foot. Three officers searched the area, located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

As a result of the investigation, more than 1 pound of suspected methamphetamine was seized, as well as about 51 grams of currency and one vehicle.

The street value of the suspected methamphetamine exceeds $1,000,000.00 according to the county Prosecutor’s Office.

Upon inspection of possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money, Mitchell was located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

The subject, later identified as Zachary T. Piccioni, 21, of Villas, was arrested at his home. Kocis and Mitchell were placed under arrest with a large knife. Kocis was taken to a hospital for an injury sustained during the transaction. Piccioni was charged with possession/distribution of methamphetamine, possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose, possession of a weapon by a person subject to a restraining order, possession of a weapon, and conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Piccioni was lodged in the Cape May County Jail pending court proceedings.

Authorities charge Villas man with assaulting police officer

VILLAS — Lower Township police arrested a man in Villas on Monday after he attempted to attack an officer with a knife.

Police received a report of a suspicious person on Oregon Avenue at about 8:30 p.m.

Upon arrival, Officer William Kocis was advised by the complainant that a man was threatening him at his home.

Kocis investigated the damage to the residence and the rear of the vehicle, and was unable to find any additional information on the complainant.

It was a way to delay those off without incurring any pays, Young said. Proponents of the budget document as a line item so you don’t have to go back for them,” he said.

Young said at one point, “you’re never going to make that anticipated surplus figure.”

Young said at one point, “you’re never going to make that anticipated surplus figure.”

Lower Township police were engaged in a brief vehicle pursuit with Mitchell, however it was shortly terminated.

A brief time later, Mitchell was involved in a single vehicle accident by crashing the car he was driving into a wooded area near Matthew’s Road and Route 47 in Whitesville.

Witnesses alerted of the area to the police who arrived on the scene and observed possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money. Upon inspection, the driver fled on foot. Three officers searched the area, located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

As a result of the investigation, more than 1 pound of suspected methamphetamine was seized, as well as about 51 grams of currency and one vehicle.

The street value of the suspected methamphetamine exceeds $1,000,000.00 according to the county Prosecutor’s Office.

Upon inspection of possession of methamphetamine, cocaine and money, Mitchell was located a short distance away and placed under arrest.

The subject, later identified as Zachary T. Piccioni, 21, of Villas, was arrested at his home. Kocis and Mitchell were placed under arrest with a large knife. Kocis was taken to a hospital for an injury sustained during the transaction. Piccioni was charged with possession/distribution of methamphetamine, possession of a weapon for an unlawful purpose, possession of a weapon by a person subject to a restraining order, possession of a weapon, and conspiracy to distribute methamphetamine.

Piccioni was lodged in the Cape May County Jail pending court proceedings.