City proposes .7-cent property tax increase

At a Jan. 15, special council meeting, Mayor Ed McHanahan said the tax increase was needed. He said with a nice

Save on weekly deliveries

Budget Page A2

Divided decision on pretrial issues in winery lawsuit

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — The City Council approved(nullable)

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — The City Manager Bruce MacLeod’s proposed city

Cape May Star and Wave

Organic Beef & Chicken • Best Gluten Free Menu • Thin Crust Brick Oven Pizza

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Just enough to make it pretty

The Washington Square Mall in Cape May received only a dusting of snow Sunday, Jan. 17, while Lower Township and other parts of the county got an inch or more of snowfall. Forecasters are watching for the possibility of heavier snow Jan. 22-23.

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — In this ongoing legal battle between Willow Creek Winery and the borough, U.S. District Court Judge Noel L. Hillman ruled on four issues Dec. 30, granting summary judgment on one and dismissing three others.

Cape May Star and Wave

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By Jack Ficther
Cape May Star and Wave

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE

Mayor Pam Kaithern as-

intended to try the case. The federal court opinion

made it abundantly clear that facts without a trial, ac-

by the borough and Willow Creek, who contended all factual

issues remain to be tried. It is a pretrial motion

Winery and the borough,

between Willow Creek and its

Cape May Star and Wave

Divided decision on pretrial issues in winery lawsuit

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Just enough to make it pretty

The Washington Square Mall in Cape May received only a dusting of snow Sunday, Jan. 17, while Lower Township and other parts of the county got an inch or more of snowfall. Forecasters are watching for the possibility of heavier snow Jan. 22-23.

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — In this ongoing legal battle between Willow Creek Winery and the borough, U.S. District Court Judge Noel L. Hillman ruled on four issues Dec. 30, granting summary judgment on one and dismissing three others.

Cape May Star and Wave

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By Jack Ficther
Cape May Star and Wave

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE

Mayor Pam Kaithern as-

intended to try the case. The federal court opinion

made it abundantly clear that facts without a trial, ac-

by the borough and Willow Creek, who contended all factual

issues remain to be tried. It is a pretrial motion

Winery and the borough,

between Willow Creek and its

Cape May Star and Wave

Divided decision on pretrial issues in winery lawsuit

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Just enough to make it pretty

The Washington Square Mall in Cape May received only a dusting of snow Sunday, Jan. 17, while Lower Township and other parts of the county got an inch or more of snowfall. Forecasters are watching for the possibility of heavier snow Jan. 22-23.

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — In this ongoing legal battle between Willow Creek Winery and the borough, U.S. District Court Judge Noel L. Hillman ruled on four issues Dec. 30, granting summary judgment on one and dismissing three others.

Cape May Star and Wave

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By Jack Ficther
Cape May Star and Wave

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE

Mayor Pam Kaithern as-

intended to try the case. The federal court opinion

made it abundantly clear that facts without a trial, ac-

by the borough and Willow Creek, who contended all factual

issues remain to be tried. It is a pretrial motion

Winery and the borough,

between Willow Creek and its

Cape May Star and Wave

Divided decision on pretrial issues in winery lawsuit

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Just enough to make it pretty

The Washington Square Mall in Cape May received only a dusting of snow Sunday, Jan. 17, while Lower Township and other parts of the county got an inch or more of snowfall. Forecasters are watching for the possibility of heavier snow Jan. 22-23.

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — In this ongoing legal battle between Willow Creek Winery and the borough, U.S. District Court Judge Noel L. Hillman ruled on four issues Dec. 30, granting summary judgment on one and dismissing three others.

Cape May Star and Wave

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By Jack Ficther
Cape May Star and Wave

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE

Mayor Pam Kaithern as-

intended to try the case. The federal court opinion

made it abundantly clear that facts without a trial, ac-

by the borough and Willow Creek, who contended all factual

issues remain to be tried. It is a pretrial motion

Winery and the borough,

between Willow Creek and its

Cape May Star and Wave

Divided decision on pretrial issues in winery lawsuit

Students to lose playground, field use during park project

Just enough to make it pretty

The Washington Square Mall in Cape May received only a dusting of snow Sunday, Jan. 17, while Lower Township and other parts of the county got an inch or more of snowfall. Forecasters are watching for the possibility of heavier snow Jan. 22-23.

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

WEST CAPE MAY — In this ongoing legal battle between Willow Creek Winery and the borough, U.S. District Court Judge Noel L. Hillman ruled on four issues Dec. 30, granting summary judgment on one and dismissing three others.

Cape May Star and Wave

Students to turn public lavatory into art gallery, Page A2

By Jack Ficther
Cape May Star and Wave

Special to the CAPE MAY STAR AND WAVE

Mayor Pam Kaithern as-

intended to try the case. The federal court opinion

made it abundantly clear that facts without a trial, ac-

by the borough and Willow Creek, who contended all factual

issues remain to be tried. It is a pretrial motion

Winery and the borough,