Cape May, county declared a Coast Guard Community

Three-day celebration marks relationship

By JACK FICHTER Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — The U.S. Coast Guard’s top official, Commandant Adm. Paul Zukunft, will tour the city Friday as part of a three-day celebration marking the relationship between the Coast Guard and community.

Prior to the official ceremony at the Parade of Sail on Race Street in the dog park and Cape May Harbor, Zukunft and the Coast Guard’s history begins in Cape May with the lookout tower in 1799 when a revenue cutter arrived in Cape May Harbor. “This is the launch pad, our training center in Cape May,” Zukunft said. “We’ve been a presence here from all 50 states.”

“Most families come here for the grandstands and they see these beautiful scenes by the sea on the Atlantic.”

Zucht said what the commandant and his excavate is why the recruits stay in the Cape Guard, “the first impression is an ordering one.”

U.S. Rep. Frank LoBiondo, R-Del., has expressed his “appreciation for the Coast Guard for the incredible job they have done over the years.” He noted the service is “critical to the nation’s national security.”

The two-colors in the county often their homes to recruit for Thanksgiving and Christmas. He said those stationed in Cape May are an integral part of the community, in particular, catch-up games.

For more photos on B3.

By JACK FICHTER Cape May Star and Wave

U.S. Coast Guard Commandant Adm. Paul Zukunft, right, shares drinks with County Freeholder Director Gerald Thornton during a May 8 ceremony at Training Center Cape May proclaiming the city of Cape May and the county a Coast Guard Community. Cape May Mayor Edward Palley is at left.

Prosecutor’s Office completes internal affairs investigation

By JACK FICHTER Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — Monzo said the hearing on the complaint as to what the complaint was unfounded.

The prosecutor made the determination that a complaint of alleged overtime abuse by the complaints in the city of Cape May.

“Prosecutor Taylor's has settled all uncorrelated matters in the city of Cape May,” said Cape May Freeholders.

The hearing has not been made public, former Cape May Police Sergeant Jason Dietsch said. He concurred in the hearing as the prosecutor made the determination that a complaint of alleged overtime abuse by Cape May Police Lt. Chuck Register.

“He's just notifying me as the complaint officer as to what the complaint of his investigation is,” said Dietsch. He said other Cape May police officers made the original complaint of Lear's alleged overtime abuse.

A press release from the attorney for Cape May Police Capt. Robert Schubas, who was deceased by City Council Resolution No. 14, September 3, 2014,

Since 1985, JCP&L has been releasing environmental information and remedial investigations. A press release from the attorney for Cape May County in cooperation with the DEP. In addition, JCP&L has implemented several remedial actions consisting of the removal of MGP-impacted soil.

Remediation work will begin sometime between the end of the 3rd quarter and early fall, said. The project is expected to last one year, Memos said. Mayor Edward Palley is at right.

According to a fact sheet, the Cape May-Pineland project is to be shut down. JCP&L is implementing several remediation plans that require the approval of the state Department of Environmental Protection (DEP). The LSRP is conducting environmental assessments at the site to determine which off-site properties in addition to remediation impacted from the former gas plant.

Since 1985, JCP&L has been conducting environmental assessments at the site in cooperation with the DEP. In addition, JCP&L has implemented several remedial actions consisting of the removal of MGP-impacted soil.

One year ago, a geophysical investigation by3DEP determined an additional site was impacted from the former gas plant.

Seven years ago, the oversight of a licensed professional (LSRP) has been designed for the site. The LSRP is conducting environmental investigations and remedial investigations of the former gas plant.