Move to dissolve Lower Township MUA fails

By JACK FICTER
Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — Vote results for the Lower Township Municipal Utility Authority's ordinance to dissolve the MUA failed Tuesday.

The Lower Township Council's three independents — Mayor Michael Beck, Deputy Mayor Sean Clark and Commissioner Jermaine Seville — voted for the township to assume the MUA's debt of $17 million, while the two Republican councilmen — Tom Conrad and Erik Simonsen — voted against the ordinance. Two councils are needed for the first ordinance to be defeated, one to create a township water/sewer utility and another to dissolve the MUA.

A vote of four council members was needed to approve assuming the debt of the MUA. The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

“Nobody is losing their job,” he said. “The people that are there today are all going to be hired.” He said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.

The meeting opened with a team of attorneys and an independent auditor documenting how dissolving the MUA would save ratepayers $1 million per year.

Beck said he expected the 3-2 vote and could have predicted the outcome of the vote before the meeting began.