that began a few years ago
Cape Connect, a concept Evelyn Lovitz reported to Safety Committee member the county park.
that runs from Route 109 to towns on Cape Island but bike lanes in portions of City again peddling idea of Cape Island bike path
By JACK FICHTER
Cape May Star and Wave
CAPE MAY — City Counicil introduced an ordinance to create a new position of deputy city manager.
During a council meeting Jan. 16, Mayor Chuck Young also serves as the city’s chief financial officer and treasurer.
City Solicitor Frank Corrado said.
that began a few years ago
as an effort to try to link these paths
"Billary, Frischkorn and I put out the word that we were interested in looking at a bicycle path that went through the four municpalities, the entire island,” Lortz said.
Up to 100 residents was assembled with the sug-
This is the way the river meets the ocean, dock and closing the one-way area around the memorial for pedestrians crossing the beach.
approaching Columbia Av-vue and Gurney Street.
"I think it’s important the beach following storms.
He said it is unsure if the city can remove rocks on a limited area or expand its work on Poverty Beach.
He said when Young was promoted to permanent
city manager from interim
city manager to deputy city
manager.
He said when Young was
promoted to permanent
city manager from interim
city manager to deputy city
manager.
He said when Young was
promoted to permanent
city manager from interim
city manager to deputy city
manager.
He said when Young was
promoted to permanent
city manager from interim
city manager to deputy city
manager.
He said when Young was
promoted to permanent
city manager from interim
city manager to deputy city
manager.