Monarch butterflies visit Cape on annual migration

By JACK FICTHER
Cape May Star and Wave

CAPE MAY — Delayed all summer, a project to offer school pool approval near Welcome Center parking, is closer to a start date.

In the council race: Hendricks wins in Cape May mayoral election

By JACK FICTHER
Cape May Star and Wave

Another council race in Cape May is on the way. The terms of Meier, Pessagno and Furlin expire Dec. 31, 2018.

Tony Macrie, president of Cape May Railroad, which holds a lease from the state for the tracks.

Frank Sippel was also unopposed in winning at a council-at-large seat in the township.

Lambert said he plans to run and has not ruled out using an unincorporated portion of Lafayet

The city has not ruled out using a unincorporated portion of Lafayette Street Park for a parking lot. In addition, the council may also do more to look at the city's seawalls.

In the council race: Hendricks wins in Cape May mayoral election

By JACK FICTHER
Cape May Star and Wave

The terms of Meier, Pessagno and Furlin expire Dec. 31, 2018.

Tony Macrie, president of Cape May Railroad, which holds a lease from the state for the tracks.

Frank Sippel was also unopposed in winning at a council-at-large seat in the township.

Lambert said he plans to run and has not ruled out using an unincorporated portion of Lafayette Street Park for a parking lot. In addition, the council may also do more to look at the city's seawalls.