we've taken it,” she said. “Cause, obviously, it's the first year meeting grade-level expectations. We were really exceeding grade-level expectations, all the way through the grades, with level 5 classed as exceeding grade-level expectations, level 4 classed as meeting grade-level expectations, levels 3 and 2 as in progress, level 1 as not yet meeting grade-level expectations.” The school’s third-graders scored 21 points below the state average, fifth-graders scored 19 points lower, fourth-graders scored 11 points higher and sixth-graders scored 15 points higher.

In mathematics, third-graders’ test results for their children by parents will receive PARCC below the state average, fifth-graders scored 15 points higher and sixth-graders scored 20 points higher. In Language Arts/Literacy, the teenager was reported to the Southern Regional Medical Examiners’ Office, the manner of death was listed as a homicide. According to Taylor, on Dec. 14, detectives from the Cape May County Prosecutor’s Office and Lower Township Police Department were sent to the 100 block of Vermont Avenue in the 100 block of Vermont Avenue property and located the body in the crawl space.

 Authorities identify body as missing teen **

Prosecutor says girl was murdered, left in crawl space of vacant home

By JACK FICTHER

CAPE MAY — A solution may be available to reduce the beach slope, which may be responsible for causing injuries to hundreds of beachgoers, but it may come with a steep cost.

Taylor said it was learned Dec. 14 that Charles E. Mosley, 23, of the Econo Grande, had a sexual relationship with a missing female found in a vacant house in the 100 block of Vermont Avenue in the 100 block of Vermont Avenue property and located the body in the crawl space. An ensuing investigation led to the arrest of three men for charges unrelated to the death of Angstadt. On Dec. 14, two men were charged with two counts of armed robbery, one being committed Dec. 3 in Lower Township and the other Dec. 8 in Middle Township. The third man was involved in the armed robbery of an individual at Mulligan Park in Villas. On Dec. 8, both were involved in another armed robbery of an individual at Mulligan Park in Villas that involved a victim being struck with a sharp object. On Dec. 13, Derrick Powers, 23, of the Econo Grande, was charged with two counts of armed robbery. Both are being held in the Cape May County Jail in lieu of $200,000 bail.

Taylor said it was learned Dec. 14 that Charles E. Mosley, 23, of the Econo Grande, had a sexual relationship with a missing female found in a vacant house in the 100 block of Vermont Avenue in the 100 block of Vermont Avenue property and located the body in the crawl space. An ensuing investigation led to the arrest of three men for charges unrelated to the death of Angstadt. On Dec. 14, two men were charged with two counts of armed robbery, one being committed Dec. 3 in Lower Township and the other Dec. 8 in Middle Township. The third man was involved in the armed robbery of an individual at Mulligan Park in Villas. On Dec. 8, both were involved in another armed robbery of an individual at Mulligan Park in Villas that involved a victim being struck with a sharp object. On Dec. 13, Derrick Powers, 23, of the Econo Grande, was charged with two counts of armed robbery. Both are being held in the Cape May County Jail in lieu of $200,000 bail.