Cape May, county to be Coast Guard Community

Designation mostly symbolic, but commandant says it shows increased commitment

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

Cape May — Within 90 days, the city and Cape May County will be designated as a U.S. Coast Guard Community.

That was the word from the U.S. Coast Guard Commandant, Adm. Robert Papp, when he attended by local elected officials, with a party at the ferry terminal in Lower Township. The event was sponsored by the county and selected by the Coast Guard Commandant. (PHIL PIZZI)

Lewes Ferry kicked off May 22 this year. She was delivered about 80,000 crossings.

The M/V Delaware was docked Lower Township Mayor Mike Heath Gehrke told the group that “about 75 percent of ferry traffic has never been better.”

Beck addressed the crowd, and Dr. Michael Beck, director of ferry operations.

The event included a car show, with rides to showcase the many upgrades performed in-house by ferry employees. The vessel, the food service operation, the terminal will occur June 28 in North Cape May and June 29 in Lewes, Del.

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Page A2

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Page A2

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Page A2

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Page A2

U.S. Coast Guard Holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.

Page A2

Chairman resigns following vote to dissolve LTMUA

By JACK FICHTER

Cape May Star and Wave

VILLAS — Nels Johnson, chairman of the Lower Township Municipal Utilities Authority (LTMUA), Board of Commissioners, resigned May 16. His resignation follows Lower Township Council’s 3-2 vote May 5 to begin the process of dissolving the LTMUA.

Water and sewer services would be absorbed into Cape May Regional Board of Education.”

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

Johnson also said he was in favor of the township dissolving the LTMUA.

U.S. Coast Guard holds change-of-watch ceremony for master chief petty officer.