LoBiondo hot, cold on job of Trump so far

By ERIC AVEDISSIAN

OCEAN CITY — In President Donald Trump, U.S. Rep. Frank LoBiondo has found an unusual ally.

During an Aug. 17 interview with the Cape May Star and Wave, LoBiondo, a Republican who represents the heart of southern New Jersey — Atlantic, Cape May, Cumberland, Salem and parts of Camden, Gloucester, Ocean and Burlington counties — said his admiration for some of Trump’s policies is distinguished from others.

“He’s really different than anything we’ve ever seen,” LoBiondo said of Trump. “He’s got a much different style. I wish we were not eager to engage in the vulgar exchange included in a celebrity, including one with “Access Hollywood” personality Billy Bush.

Trump bragged about trying to have intercourse with a minor, which violated New York law. Trump later apologized for the comments he made while on the Access Hollywood set.

See LoBiondo, Page A2

Unfunded Choice students not costing WCM taxpayers

By JACK FICHTER

WEST CAPE MAY — At recent meetings of the West Cape May Elementary School Board of Education, members have raised questions about unfunded Choice School students costing too much taxpayers money.

The state’s Choice School in Cape May is to send their children to Cape May County’s six school districts. The state pays for the students’ in-lieu payments.

West Cape May Elementary School Superintendent Alfred Surra said the school became a Choice district in

By bY JACk FICHTER

The Cape May Star and Wave.

Partly sunny in Cape May

Above, the Gelvord family of West Orange and the Kaplan family of South Orange gathered Monday on the Washington Street Pluff to view the solar eclipse. At Left, a crowd of an estimated 300 people gathered at the Cove in Cape May as local photographer Chris Bailey hosted an eclipse-viewing party with his professional photography equipment.

WASHINGTON INN

Serving Dinner Every Evening in August

Line After Nine... Like a Frenchian

Enjoy live music on the Beach, Noon, 12:15, 1:30, 2:15, 3:15, 4:15, 5:15, 6:15, 7:15, 8:15, 9:15, 10:15

Partly sunny in Cape May

Unfunded Choice students not costing WCM taxpayers

The Cape May Star and Wave.

Partly sunny in Cape May

Unfunded Choice students not costing WCM taxpayers

The Cape May Star and Wave.

Partly sunny in Cape May

Unfunded Choice students not costing WCM taxpayers

The Cape May Star and Wave.

Partly sunny in Cape May

Unfunded Choice students not costing WCM taxpayers

The Cape May Star and Wave.

Partly sunny in Cape May