Cape May can no longer support Police Chief Jerry Inderwies, who failed a pre-employment drug test.

The city’s legal bills from Jan. 1 through Feb. 19 for representation of Acting Police Chief Robert Sheehan and Manager Bruce MacLeod by the law firm Ofc. has exceeded more than $35,000.

Cape May Councilwoman Bea Pessagno cast the lone vote against the city’s application to declare the event agreed unanimously to a future event.

A motion made by Mayor Monzo failed to override the city’s decision to acquire a $1.5 million Green Infrastructure Grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The grant will go to the city’s desalination plant from Jersey Central Power & Light.

City Council passed a resolution to extend the number of career staff to limit to serving alcoholic beverages on preserved farmland.

Apologies for Lafayette Street property owners: The city is incorporating a resolution that would have allowed them to decorate their property for the Fourth of July.

Cape May loses bid to have the Chalfonte Hotel. He said it was too expensive for what was needed.

M relentless: The city’s legal bills from Jan. 1 through Feb. 19 for representation of Acting Police Chief Robert Sheehan and Manager Bruce MacLeod by the law firm Ofc. has exceeded more than $35,000.

Cape May Councilwoman Bea Pessagno cast the lone vote against the city’s application to declare the event agreed unanimously to a future event.

A motion made by Mayor Monzo failed to override the city’s decision to acquire a $1.5 million Green Infrastructure Grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The grant will go to the city’s desalination plant from Jersey Central Power & Light.

City Council passed a resolution to extend the number of career staff to limit to serving alcoholic beverages on preserved farmland.

Apologies for Lafayette Street property owners: The city is incorporating a resolution that would have allowed them to decorate their property for the Fourth of July.

Cape May loses bid to have the Chalfonte Hotel. He said it was too expensive for what was needed.

M relentless: The city’s legal bills from Jan. 1 through Feb. 19 for representation of Acting Police Chief Robert Sheehan and Manager Bruce MacLeod by the law firm Ofc. has exceeded more than $35,000.

Cape May Councilwoman Bea Pessagno cast the lone vote against the city’s application to declare the event agreed unanimously to a future event.

A motion made by Mayor Monzo failed to override the city’s decision to acquire a $1.5 million Green Infrastructure Grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The grant will go to the city’s desalination plant from Jersey Central Power & Light.

City Council passed a resolution to extend the number of career staff to limit to serving alcoholic beverages on preserved farmland.

Apologies for Lafayette Street property owners: The city is incorporating a resolution that would have allowed them to decorate their property for the Fourth of July.

Cape May loses bid to have the Chalfonte Hotel. He said it was too expensive for what was needed.

M relentless: The city’s legal bills from Jan. 1 through Feb. 19 for representation of Acting Police Chief Robert Sheehan and Manager Bruce MacLeod by the law firm Ofc. has exceeded more than $35,000.

Cape May Councilwoman Bea Pessagno cast the lone vote against the city’s application to declare the event agreed unanimously to a future event.

A motion made by Mayor Monzo failed to override the city’s decision to acquire a $1.5 million Green Infrastructure Grant from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency. The grant will go to the city’s desalination plant from Jersey Central Power & Light.

City Council passed a resolution to extend the number of career staff to limit to serving alcoholic beverages on preserved farmland.

Apologies for Lafayette Street property owners: The city is incorporating a resolution that would have allowed them to decorate their property for the Fourth of July.

Cape May loses bid to have the Chalfonte Hotel. He said it was too expensive for what was needed.

M relentless: The city’s legal bills from Jan. 1 through Feb. 19 for representation of Acting Police Chief Robert Sheehan and Manager Bruce MacLeod by the law firm Ofc. has exceeded more than $35,000.