Cape May — Three new officers joined the Cape May Police Department on Wednesday.

Center Township police officer Nicholas Campanella, a New York National Guard Class II officer, was sworn in by Mayor Michael P. Love as the newest of the department’s officers.

Campanella worked for the Navy from 2009 to 2013 and served a year working test period. From the Civil Service list he was hired permanently in 2014, Love said. He previously worked in law enforcement and two have military experience. He requires a one-year test period. All other Civil Service test requires a one-year working test period.
