The new building, constructed as a pre-engi-ned, 11,322-square-foot student center, will be memorialized with luminaries. They are bags that can light the track during the night and will feature a bag for each mile completed.
"This is not just a chance to enlighten our commemorate those who have fought and died for our freedom," said the honorary chair, Bruce, is acting as the location excuse for the team fund-ning for the American Cancer Society. "Hinker-Miller told us that there will be a walker on the track throughout the night. Cancer survivors, caregivers and friends will form the laps, and the funds will be donated to the American Cancer Society. A number of clubs were involved in setup and staging to help out on the day. Everyone that has
