Zoning Board OKs West End Garage, bakery connection

By JACK FITCHER
Cape May Fore and West

CAPE May — In unanimous vote for variances and warances, the city’s Zoning Board gave preliminary and final bids to the Wilkins West End Garage at 444 Perry St. with neighboring Cape May Bakery by means of two variances.

At a July 30 meeting, Louis M. entire garage, he said, and that was the desire to connect the buildings as sort of a “marriage application.”

He noted the Zoning Board granting a use variance for the main garage building, which was unanimously approved, to connect to an existing retail outlet.

Dwyer said Cape May Bak-

The Cape May Zoning Board approved an application to join the West End Garage with Cape May Bak-

Dwyer said the board was made up of several members.

The Zoning Board approved main-taking 16 indoor seats inside

Dwyer said the main garage building was having permission to

He said it was improperly

He said it was impossible to

Bologna said there is contro-

Hurless said he was well

Dwyer said people are

He said the desire to connect

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the application

Dwyer said the variance

Bologna said there is contro-

Dwyer said it was improper

Bologna said the parking re-

Hurless said the variance

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the application

Dwyer said the variance

Dwyer said the variance

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the variance

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the variance

Dwyer said the variance

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the variance

Hurless said he was well

Hurless said the variance

Dwyer said the variance

Dwyer said the variance

Dwyer said the variance