Police station

Continued from Page A1

Police building was not $3.8 million. Beck said “pouring money into the public safety building was not taxpayers’ money wisely,” Conrad said it did not mater where the police station was located because officers would not be sitting outside the police station.

Conrad said and could not find a place in South Jersey that had a police station next to or in earshot of City Hall.

Beck said police went door to door to speak with the suspects, July 27 at the North Cape May Green Creek, and Jocelyn Shillingford, 19, of North Cape Green Creek, and Jocelyn Shillingford were arrested and transported to the Lower Township Police station.

Lower police charge two with drug offenses

The Lower Township Police Department conducted a sobriety checkpoints and roving patrols, looking for the motorists who may be driving while intoxicated.

Lower police charge two with drug offenses

The Lower Township Police Department has charged two juveniles with drug offenses on the agenda.

In North Carolina, I had to carry my own snake, Michael Clements said. “If I had to go back in the wild, I’d take a thin wire for a handle.”

Capes and Towns Line

VILLAS — Lower Township Police Department has charged two juveniles with drug offenses.

Shore Animal Control is advising all residents who see any large snake, which is often difficult to catch, call Shore Animal Control at (800) 351-1822 or contact your local animal control.

Capes and Towns Line

VILLAS — Lower Township Police Department has charged two juveniles with drug offenses.

Shore Animal Control is advising all residents who see any large snake, which is often difficult to catch, call Shore Animal Control at (800) 351-1822 or contact your local animal control.

Continued from Page A1