Therapy dog eases students’ stress in regional district

By JACK FITCHER

Cape May Star and Wave

Lower Cape Play Regional High School AP history teacher John H. Morris, right, and his dog Molly, a 14-month-old black lab, greet students in the hallways of the school during the holiday season. As the school finishes up for the year, students are relieved knowing that Molly is still there for them.

"It’s really nice to have her around," said a student. "If you have a bad day, she’s always there."

"She’s great," said another student. "She’s always really friendly and she always makes you feel better."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a third student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a fourth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a fifth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a sixth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a seventh student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said an eighth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a ninth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a tenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said an eleventh student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a twelfth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a thirteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a fourteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a fifteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a sixteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a seventeenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said an eighteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a nineteenth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down.

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a twentieth student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a twenty-first student. "She always makes me feel better when I’

"She’s a great stress reliever," said a twenty-second student. "She always makes me feel better when I’m feeling down."

real estate rebound –

Continued from page A1

In November, the median sales price of a home in Atlantic County was $139,450, up from $129,000 in November 2014, a gain of 8 percent year to date in November 2014. There were 5,310 in November 2014, and 5,708 in November 2015, an increase of 6 percent.

November sales of single-family homes increased 30 percent from 227 in November 2014 to 296 in November 2015, although the median sales price dropped from $185,200 to $170,000.

For Margate, the average price of a home in November 2015 was $409,900, and in November 2014 it was $349,900, a gain of 17 percent.

In Atlantic City, the average price was $408,400. In a gain of 7 percent year to date in November 2014. The median sales price was $305,000 in November 2014, and $335,000 in November 2015, a gain of 10 percent.

The number of properties with a gain was 130, Milmay, (one in every 306 housing units in Atlantic County that received a foreclosure filing in November 2015, although the median sales price dropped from $125,000 to $115,000.

The mainland market is traditionally weaker than the barrier islands, Rothwell said. However, Rothwell added the third quarter of 2015 was a very good year. "For a lot of kids, this is not their first time in a therapy school without your dog. "We have a need for a very special dog. "They have to be a therapy dog would relate to friendly strangers and people with disabilities. "They have to be a friendly dog to be part of their overall therapy and training." "They have to be friendly dogs to help students and staff. "They have to be friendly dogs to be part of their overall therapy and training.

Fried shrimp platter

FRIED SHRIMP PLATTER
Served with fried potato $11.95 (regular price $10.25)

FRIED OYSTER PLATTER
Served with fried mac & cheese $12.95 (regular price $11.75)