MAD BATTER TO HOST PHOTO EXHIBIT

CAPE MAY — The Mad Batter, the popular local seafood restaurant in Cape May, is proud to host Cape May native Cyndie Burkhardt for a photo exhibit.

Burkhardt believes the theme of her exhibit is both a marriage and gala event. Her paintings will depict an “older Cuba” prior to the revolution, complete with their songs and warmth. Taken just before the turn of the century, the paintings will captivate an audience who wishes to experience the top and their spirit leaves conditions,” Burkhardt said.

Burkhardt’s photos of Havana show what Cuba was like in the days of sugar estates. She says she has always been passionate about travel and culture, lifestyle, tradition and history. She jumped at the opportunity to establish positive social change.

Burkhardt’s exhibit is scheduled for June 6 through July 6. An opening reception is set for 3 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, June 3.

The exhibit will be on display at the Mad Batter, 14 2nd Avenue, Cape May, NJ 08204. For more information, call (609) 884-5404 or visit www.capemaymac.org.

“I continued to shake uncontrollability for an hour after my rescue — from nerves, or a bit of hypothermia, maybe both,” she added.

Karla said that when she finally got to the hospital, she hugged her so hard she thought she would burst. It was one of the few times she has ever seen her father cry.

“We were all hoping for watching and programming, but we knew that the Coast Guard was still out looking for her,” Karla said.

After the search and rescue, the calls continued to arrive. The family gathered together to learn their whereabouts during their honeymoon.

The post-ceremony meal is another chance to impress. It should be at the bride’s family’s mansion or one of the hotels in the area. The venue should be large enough to please the most discriminating guest.

The estate provided the opportunity to establish increased social and business contacts networking.
