The Cape May Star and Wave has been watching over the shores at the southern tip of New Jersey since 1874. It is where locals and visitors have turned for their news week for more than 150 years. The Star and Wave is a weekly newspaper for local people by local people, and a great resource for visitors who want to stay abreast on what is happening in Cape May, West Cape May, Cape May Point, North Cape May, the Villas, Town Bank, Fishing Creek, Erma and the rest of Lower Township, along with other local communities.

From keeping a watch on the political machinations in Cape May County and cities and towns to offering a wonderful forum for opinions and viewpoints of citizens and elected officials alike, the Cape May Star and Wave is part of the living history of this area.

Stay tuned to find the best place for dining, entertainment, shopping and household services.

Did you notice this ad?

The ad is a call to action for people to visit the Star and Wave's website for more information about their services and subscriptions.

The ad also includes a list of upcoming meetings and events in Cape May County, including regular board meetings and public hearings for various committees.

The ad provides a phone number for those interested in advertising and mentions the availability of special promotions for local businesses.

The ad is a reminder for readers to support local newspapers and the role they play in providing information and context to their communities.