DENNISVILLE — The 29th Historic Dennisville Christmas House Tour is scheduled for Dec. 15. The tour begins at 3:30 p.m. at the Dennisville Historic Home Owners Association, 1325 E Main St. The tour cost is $6 per person. Tickets are sold at the Dennisville Post Office, 24 Hall Ave. in Dennisville, the day of the tour beginning at 3:30 p.m. Admission slots are $1.50 per person. Tickets can also be purchased online at dhhoa.org.

Dennis Township Middle School student government members will serve as greeters to distribute programs and get tourists started on their way. House tours end at 8 p.m. The Post Office will be open for stamp closure process and its new multipaned windows. The house has survived the foreclosure process and its new owners are giving it plenty of well-deserved attention.

Dennisville: A Walking Tour will be available for sale at the ticket center. Dennis Volunteer Fire Company will be open with new and vintage equipment. Dennisville Methodist Church Social Hall, the Dennis Volunteer Fire Station and the Dennis Township Fire-Club House Museum. The Middlesex Fire Station (Middle Township Student Government members will serve as greeters to distribute programs and get tourists started on their way. Start your holiday season with a festive glimpse of history in Dennisville at Christmastime.

GIFT CARDS AVAILABLE!
WORLD’S BEST VACUUM CLEANERS & SERVICING MACHINES
4th generation servicing since 1927

DOLLARD BAKER SEW-VAC

R.E. DARBY AGENCY
INSURANCE PROVIDERS
Ocean City • Margate • Marmora • EHT
Glenn Darby, President

PROTECTING SOUTHERN NEW JERSEY FOR FOUR GENERATIONS
Home • Flood • Auto • Boat • Business • Condominiums • Health • Life • Disability
800-913-2729 • www.darbyinsurance.com

LEH SOAP COMPANY
handmade soaps & skincare since 1960

Gift Sets and Custom Baskets ready for Holiday Shopping!

GIVE SOMEONE CAPE MAY ALL YEAR LONG, NO MATTER WHERE THEY ARE!
Published every Wednesday and featuring Community Events, Arts & Theater, Local News, Real Estate, School Activities and Sports!

Cape May Star & Wave
B9WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 12, 2018

Historic Dennisville Christmas House Tours slated on Dec. 15

HOSPITALITY NIGHT on the Mall
The Martino family of Lyndhurst was in town for Hospitality Night and met Santa Claus on Dec. 6 outside Westervan Christmas Shop on the Washington Street Mall.

Ta-Dah! Boutique & Accessories
Celebrating 27 Years of Women’s Fashion!
5 Downtown Locations to Serve You
Gift Certificates Available in All Locations

925 Asbury Avenue 609-398-8771
952 Asbury Avenue 609-398-8234
1026 Asbury Avenue 609-398-5771
1038 Asbury Avenue 609-398-6770
1040 Asbury Avenue 609-398-6748

Ocean City, NJ 08226

609-390-3434 • www.DBSewVac.com

Dundee Township Middle School Student Government members will serve as greeters to distribute programs and get tourists started on their way. Houses, as well as several public buildings and two churches, will be open to the public. Start your holiday season with a festive glimpse of history in Dennisville at Christmastime.