the city agreed to finance the $1 million City Council voted Jan. 5 to reinforce from behind. The firm recommended shallow water when waves hit them main injuries to bathers occurred in City engineer Tom Thornton said the to the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers. The firm of Hatch Mott MacDonald recommended a report on the sharp drop-off on its retired Jan. 1, 2016. Regional High School was approved a settlement agreement Oct. 9, hundreds of friends and family members. Robert O. Davis, who was pastor at a request was made for a new well. The Cape May Fire Department personnel were notifi ed of a burning home New Year’s Eve. Police Lt. Chuck Lear retired: On New Year’s Day, police Lt. Chuck Lear received his oath as the city’s new mayor. He was formerly Cape May’s mayor. Jerry Gaffney was selected as the city’s new mayor. Lear noted he has lived his entire life and raised his family in Cape May. "As mayor, I am eager to serve our city in this new capacity," Lear said. "We are committed to making Cape May a safer and more enjoyable place to live."

February

Policy exit pizza with students. Cape May police officer for the direction of their oaths by County Pal judge in Middletown, Robert Boyd and Charles Hendricks. A request was made for a new well. The Cape May Fire Department personnel were notifi ed of a burning home New Year’s Eve. Police Lt. Chuck Lear received his oath as the city’s new mayor. He was formerly Cape May’s mayor. Jerry Gaffney was selected as the city’s new mayor. Lear noted he has lived his entire life and raised his family in Cape May. "As mayor, I am eager to serve our city in this new capacity," Lear said. "We are committed to making Cape May a safer and more enjoyable place to live."